Ron Prestage,
Guest Speaker

Ron Prestage was a Constable and Accident Reconstructionist while serving with the Metropolitan Toronto Police for 12 years. After leaving the police, he owned and operated a paralegal firm, representing clients in court for provincial offences charges for 20 years. Upon leaving the firm, Ron became a provincial prosecutor with the Crown Attorney's Office in Durham Region until June 2007. At that time, Ron was appointed as an Ontario Court Justice of the Peace where he currently sits in Durham Region.

Ron has been married to his childhood sweetheart, Bev, since 1973. Bev's father, Alex Ness, was one of the great Christian leaders of the 20th century. They have 2 children and 8 grandchildren. Ron's faith has been the central guiding point throughout his life.
