LADIES WELCOME!

Born in England 1943, David Gagnon moved to Canada with parents 2 years later, went back to England for a year, and then moved back to Canada...his home ever since.

He enlisted in the Royal Canadian Navy for 3 years. 1963-1966. In the navy he felt the call to full time ministry, so upon release attended EPBC. Upon graduation in April '69, he became pastor of the Gooderham Church. He married Louise in June of that same year. They have served 4 churches in ministry. Easter of this year he retired as the pastor of Bethel Christian Fellowship at Bobcaygeon.

David served as a chaplain in 2 Developmental Centres, 1 nursing home, and 4 correctional facilities & still serves as full time chaplain of Central East Correctional Centre in Lindsay.. a Provincial Maximum Security Institution with around 1,000 inmates.
