LADIES WELCOME!

Bill is a Christian psychotherapist in private practice offering individual, family and marital counseling to bring healing to relationships. While at university, Bill's search for the meaning of life led him to reject any belief system other than Humanism. As a Humanist he sought personal fulfillment through professional status, money, and success. He ended up an unhappy workaholic. Unable to find inner peace he longed for, he agreed to go with his wife and children to an FGBMFI convention, where he experienced the start of a relationship that transformed his life as a man, husband, father and professional counselor. Bill is a Past President of FGBMFI in Canada and is currently Canadian President of BMF in Canada. He is humorous and insightful, he's addressed audiences across Canada, U.S. and abroad. You won't want to miss hearing this true life-changing story.
