Zak Gariba,
Guest Speaker

Zak Gariba is a former Muslim Imam. He had his own mosque and was one of the leaders among Imam's in Ghana and Nigeria. His life was totally changed when he witnessed first hand the healing power of the Lord Jesus when a twelve year old girl, who was paralyzed, was miraculously healed in his arms. In a pursuit to find the truth, he found Jesus. Zak emerged with an amazing empowering of the Holy Spirit, and the impartation of His gifts, which comes across in his exciting and informative teaching and preaching style.

Zak and his wife, Karen-Marie, are presently part of the pastoral leadership team of Gateway Harvest Fellowship in Barrie, Ontario, Canada. They also travel extensively preaching and teaching at churches across all denominational lines in Canada, USA, United Kingdom, India and Africa.
