Cal Bombay,
Guest Speaker

Cal Bombay is dedicated to the work which Jesus commissioned His disciples to do.... to change the world through the preaching, teaching and the demonstration of the love of God in sending His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ to be the answer to humanity's fallen nature, to society's confusion and the physical and spiritual needs of people around the world.

Cal Bombay spent 17 years in Africa as a missionary, with his family. He established the largest Christian Publishing House in Africa at the time (Evangel Publishing House) and a church planting ministry in Uganda where 23 new churches were set up.

On his return to Canada he had 25 years of experience in Christian TV where he was, over time, Division Head of Christian Multilingual Programming and daily Commentator on 100 Huntley Street, the flagship daily Christian Television Program of Crossroads Christian Communications Inc.

At retirement from Crossroads in 2003, Cal was convinced that, since the gifts and callings of God are irrevocable, that he must continue in Christian Ministry and in Missions.
