Ralph Rutledge,
Guest Speaker

Ralph Rutledge has been involved in ministry from a very early age being brought up in a musical family which ministered in many churches with family members. He entered into full time ministry in 1959 and just celebrated 50 years of ministry. Ralph was involved in TV ministry in the early days of gospel television, hosting his own TV programs called "Calvary Call" in Peterborough, "Faith and Music" in Halifax and "Revival Hour" from the Queensway Cathedral, Toronto. He also hosted the daily program, "100 Huntley St.", for a number of years.

Ralph has been used by the Lord with a prophetic voice to the nation of Canada as a "revivalist" which is still his passion. He of late has been doing mission work in many countries as he conducts leadership conferences and church evangelism. He has been assisting other ministries in helping to build churches, schools, home for widows and the poor. His schedule is again full this year with overseas ministry. He finds this most rewarding as he gives others the hope that there is in Christ.

His wife, Evelyn, grew up in Oshawa, and is an integral part of the ministry.
