David Campbell, Guest Speaker and Special Music

David Campbell grew up in Winnipeg and spent his teen years in The Pas, in northern Manitoba. From a broken home, David aspired to become a professional musician and left home at the age of 18 and moved to Lindsay, Ontario hoping to connect with a band there. Instead, he was met by a group of young people from a Bible College from Saskatchewan and it wasn't long before he accepted Christ as Lord and Saviour. After graduating from Bible College, David and his wife Laurilyn went into the ministry pastoring in the Kingston area. 35 years later, they are still serving the Lord in pastoral ministry. David has a heart to reach the lost and a deep desire to see people's lives changed by the power of God.

Come and meet David and hear his stories and testimonial!
